

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Two More Texas Postmasters Named by Cleveland.

BONHAM AND SULPHUR SPRINGS.

J. H. Oliphant Secures the Former and John R. Ferguson the Latter—Deadlock in the House Over Bland's Seigniorage Bill—Tariff Bill Delayed on Account of the Sugar Claims.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The president sent in the names of J. H. Oliphant as postmaster at Bonham and John R. Ferguson as postmaster at Sulphur Springs. Mr. Oliphant was not recommended for the position by Congressman Bailey, in whose district Bonham is situated. Mr. Bailey says that he had made no recommendation for the postoffice at Bonham, but had left a written request at the postoffice department that he should be notified before the postmaster at Bonham was appointed. He was not notified. He says further that the reason he made no recommendation for the Bonham postoffice was that he was waiting to see whether or not his recommendations for other offices would be effective or amounted to anything. There were five or six applicants for this office.

The House.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The deadlock is still on in the house on the Bland seigniorage bill. Roll call after roll call followed without acquiescence and the house forced to adjourn.

The Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The session of the senate was devoid of special interest. Senator Daniel of Virginia concluded his speech on the Hawaiian question, and while supporting warmly the course that has been followed by the administration, he declared there was now nothing to do but recognize the new government and wish it God-speed.

After Senator Daniel's speech the bill for additional printing office facilities was taken up and discussed in a desultory manner the remainder of the day.

Oklahoma School Lands.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—The commissioner of the general land office has been directed to formulate new directions for the leasing of school lands in Oklahoma.

Stabbed Him With a Hat Pin.

NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—Edward Wall, a Newark young man, whose address and whereabouts are unknown, was stabbed by Miss Kate Fitzgerald, aged 20. Wall offered to accompany her home from a dance at Herbert's Hall, on Springfield avenue, but according to her story, followed her into the yard of her house instead of leaving. Miss Fitzgerald asserts that Wall tried to assault her and that she stabbed him with her hat pin, which broke at the middle in the wound. Shrieking with pain, he ran away, while Miss Fitzgerald, all took shelter in a neighbor's house. The police cannot locate Wall.

Settled Out of Court.

MASON CITY, Ia., Feb. 21.—The celebrated suit of B. F. Fellows against Cerro Gordo has been taken out of court and settled by the county paying the plaintiff $3000. Fellows was badly injured by an accident occurring on a bridge and he and other members of his family, who were injured, sued for $15,000, and at one time secured a verdict for $5000. This settlement bars further litigation.

Wants $50,000 Damages.

CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—Ex-Coroner H. L. Hertz commenced suit here in the circuit court against the West Chicago Street Railway company, claiming $50,000 damages for injuries while riding on the defendant's road. He was brushed from the car and the wheels of the trailer passed over one of his feet, which was amputated.

An Ex-Chief Police in Jail.

GOVERNOR, N. Y., Feb. 21.—Johnston Gaddis, ex-chief of police, was sentenced to jail for 25 days and to pay a fine of $50. He was convicted of stealing a buffalo robe from the cutter of Mrs. Julia A. Drake on Jan. 24 last.

Harrison Postpones His Visit.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 21.—The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe officials have been advised by ex-President Harrison that he will postpone his departure for California until Monday, Feb. 26. No reason is assigned for the change.

Holden Gets a New Trial.

LITTLE ROCK, Feb. 21.—Judge Battle granted a new trial to Willis Holden, who was convicted of wife murder in Clark county in February 1893, and whose case was appealed to the supreme court.

Wanted For Murder.

WASHINGTON, Ia., Feb. 21.—Abraham Connerman was arrested near here and taken to Lewistown, Ill., where he is wanted for murder.

Refused an Interview.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—Mr. Asquith has refused Tyndall, the hypnotist, permission to interview Mrs. Maybrick.

A SURPRISED THIEF.

He Found Himself Handling Stolen Goods to an Officer.

MACON, Mo., Feb. 21.—A crook named Jack Hues was released from jail Saturday, and Sunday night was captured while burglarizing Schweikhaus' saloon here. He had a negro confederate outside to receive the swag. Marshal Meadows happened along, and the negro started to run. He halted him and turned him over to an assistant. Then he stationed himself at the window where the burglar entered. In a few moments Hues appeared at the window himself, and handed the officer a caddy of tobacco, in the darkness mistaking him for his colored assistant. He was just starting back when the marshal put his hand on his collar and pulled him out of the window. A more surprised thief was never seen, and he allowed handcuffs to go on without any show of resistance.

A Remarkable Case.

ATLANTA, Feb. 21.—A case of mental apathy has developed in the mysterious man who has been so long at the Grady hospital. He was knocked down and robbed several weeks ago and since then he has been unable to remember his own name. He has offered a reward of $150 to anyone who can tell him his name. He says that if he could remember it he could remember everything. Chief of Police Connolly had him sit for a photograph, which will be sent all over the country.

Sold Whiskey to Indians.

HOT SPRINGS, S. D., Feb. 21.—United States Commissioner Anderson bound over S. H. Barnes, of Cody, Neb., for selling liquor to the Indians at Rosebud agency. Cody has been the depot of operations for a gang of outlaws organized to sell bad whiskey to the redmen, and Barnes is one of a large number who have been bound over to the United States court.

Frank Holland Pleads Guilty.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 21.—Frank B. Holland of this city, who was recently indicted by the federal court grand jury for using the mails to defraud, was arraigned to answer, and, upon entering a plea of guilty, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and to serve a term of 30 days.

Killed With a Flatiron.

TOLEDO, Feb. 21.—Daniel Boone, colored, kicked in the door of Benjamin Lyons' shanty, and attacked him with a buggy spoke. Lyons, who is 65 years old, retaliated with a flatiron, killing Boone. The trouble arose over a dusky widow named Emma James.

THE SILK STOCKING DUDINE Wherein Riggins Hits a Few Blows.

"Say, Riggins, ain't you afraid to hit certain big bugs and eddyish aristocrats so hard? Won't such things hurt your trade?"

Thus spoke a "polite" business man. We replied:

"No, sir. These silk stocking big bugs don't buy goods from me. They go to Chicago and get what they want. You may take nine-tenths of the high-faluting eddyish aristocracy, both male and female, in Waco, and they send to Louisville, New York or Chicago for their things, except what they buy on long credit in Waco. Take Sager Bros., Goldstein & Mgel, J. H. Wood and others in the clothing business in Waco. They have plenty of names now on their books of these very people who are sending their cash out of Waco to buy the very things they now owe for here. The same is true of many other lines.

"Is this Mr. Riggins?" "Yes sir, what can I do for you?"

Here the party presents his card. "I am from Dallas; make shirts, collars and cuffs, and all sorts of underwear; can I take your order?" (This occurred while I was writing this article.)

"Now, my friend," we said, "you have the appearance of a nice man, but do I look like I was a traitor to my town? Please excuse me. We have as nice shirts, or any other thing in Waco as I need."

A few days ago a Santa Fe man came to me, saying:

"Mr. Riggins, you have a couple of cars of goods coming from Michigan, can't we route them via the Santa Fe railway?" "No, thank you, I am for Waco, a strong believer in reciprocity. We have plenty of railroads sustaining men and depots in Waco. When the Santa Fe runs into Waco I will cheerfully divide my freight with them, and not until then."

I carried $20,000 life insurance; I changed $10,000 from a foreign company, represented in Dallas, to Col. Parrott's company in Waco, because Col. Parrott is a part of Waco and the foremost in his work for Waco.

I would buy a baggy from Tom Padgett, because he is of and for Waco, first, last and all the time.

Is the snobs who send away from Waco, and who talk against Waco, who are the traitors to our town.

Now how, and when your nose turns up too high to live and buy what you need in Waco, I will contribute something to get you out of town.

The Waco Trading Co. has goods in stock enough for any family in Waco to furnish your home from kitchen to parlor. Cheap for cash or easy payments.

J. W. RIGGINS.

WHEREIN RIGGINS

Writes an Open Letter to City Aldermen.

GENTLEMEN: Why do you not wake up to the fact that we have a city, and that we pay about $200,000 taxes per annum, and have very few things to show for our money? Take some of the "bond totting" and big city hall foolishness money and

1. Put drinking fountains at all the important street corners, with the sign: "Pure Artesian Water From Well 1,800 Feet Deep. Free to Everybody."

2. Build sewers, first of all, to all the residences of Waco. No city can be healthy or cleanly without sewerage.

Arrange to sprinkle the streets of Waco. Thousands of people will visit Waco soon to attend our Cotton Palace, or conventions in the convention "Cotton Palace Hall." We want the dust settled.

4. Keep our streets clean. We want a clean town.

5. Buy a park. We need a park and each year you put this matter off will only make it cost the city more money.

6. Let all your plans be looking to a city, for the Cotton Palace will make a city out of Waco soon. We are children no longer; we have put off knee pants. Treat us like we were somebody and wanted something for our money. Rise to the "IDEA." GET THE IDEA, and push Waco, and all the people will call and get their homes furnished from kitchen to parlor
